

Directions to Rhyd Hir from Newtown Powys

From the centre of Newtown, go north on the A483 signposted Welshpool. At the south end of the Welshpool bypass, you will go over a large roundabout that has exits for Welshpool, Shrewsbury/Oswestry and Forden – take the third exit (A483) along the bypass. At the next roundabout (the old Welshpool station is on your left), take the first exit (B4381) and turn immediately right at the mini roundabout (station car park on your left), up Severn Road to the traffic lights.

Go across the traffic lights and through the main street of Welshpool (Broad Street which becomes High Street). Continue on this street until you reach the roundabout (the Welshpool to Llanfair Caerinion narrow gauge railway is on the left side), take the second exit onto the A490 which will be signposted Llanfyllin and Lake Vyrnwy.

Continue on the A490 through Pentre'r Beirdd until you reach the T-junction (stop sign here) with the A495 (left for Meifod and right for Llanfyllin and Lake Vyrnwy). Turn right onto the A495 for a further 800 yards, then turn left onto the A490 for Llanfyllin and Lake Vyrnwy.

Turning for Bwlch y Cibau off the A490

Follow the A490 through Bwlch y Cibau, past the Stumble Inn, and continue to Llanfyllin (just as you get to the outskirts of Llanfyllin, the Dolydd [workhouse] is on the right hand side).

Go through the village of Llanfyllin, do not turn left for Lake Vyrnwy, follow the main road over a small bridge and up the hill. Continue up the hill for almost 2 miles. As you reach the top, you will see that there is a road to the right, signposted for Llanrhaeadr ym Mochnant, and the main road continues round to the left. At this junction, do a complete 360 degree turn and come back down the road you just came up towards Llanfyllin.

Go down the hill for no more than 50 metres – on the left is a small wood and a dirt lay-by. Immediately opposite is a small dirt track going down at an angle – look out for the yellow ribbon tied to the left hand gatepost for a marker.
